calities and Proclaims Himself Fit.

Ey Leazed Wire to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Battling Nelson the lightweight champion, who has never allows what it is to be knocked out. The course out strong as an aspirant to be the third man in the ring with Jeffricated Johnson. Nelson says that there is too man in the world that knows the boxing game better than be, and in miroof of what he says he shows the calps of the men he has met in the ring, together with the championship hell.

Nelson says that a good referee is needed in the ring for this contest for should either of the big fellows lose his head it would take a man of nerve to show him his place, and Nelson says that he has been reading the rules over carefully lately and the rules over carefully lately and Nelson games is false.

CHICAGO Jan. 2.—Coach Stagg of the University of Chicago, who returned to-day from the meeting of the Intercollegiate Athetic association in New York, declared that football as played in American colleges is well on the way to therefore, and no other substituted.

"I feel just as strongly as ever," said coach Stagg "that the modern actentific game of football should not and will not be given up. I also feel that the salvation of the game will be in making it more open.

Stagg further asserted that any impression that the national experts favor are very said to the given up. I also feel that the salvation of the game will be in making it more open.

Nelson says that a good referee is receded in the time for this contest for should either of the big fellows lose his head, it would take a man of nerve to show him his place, and Nelson says that he is not afraid of either, as big as they are. Nelson says that he has been reading the rules over carefully lately and has every technicality down, and would be able to call the turn on any funny business. In fact, Nelson guarantees that neither man will be treated as he was at Goldfield when he knocked out loe Gaus with a punch to the pit of the stomach and Referee Siler, who was standing behind at the time, called it a four. Nelson says that he would be on the job every second and would guarantee ratisfaction.

Coach Siagg that he hose of guive up, I also feel that the salvente of the game will be in making it more open."

Stagg further asserted that any imprevation to rugby or the adoption of association games false.

Harry F. Margetts and Lorenzo Needs ham settled an argument as to their reham settled an argument as to their respective abilities as marksmen with shotgurs Sunday afternoon at the trap grounds of the Salt Lake Gun club, in a live pigeon shoot. A match of four-teen birds each was shot. Margetts killed eleven pigeons out of fourteen, while Needham only dropped seven inside the boundary line. Gver $500 side the boundary line. Over $500 changed hands on the result of the match match the result of the match. Dorsey Burgess issued a challenge to shoot against either man for a side bet, two barrels to the bird.

President Cowan was asked for the use of the clubhouse, to which he readily consented and, going up with the hors. Cowan found that theres had broken into the clubhouse and had carried off floor urgets, together with everything else they could carry away. They had also broken the traps. Cowan says that the damage to the club will be close to $150.

Dorsey Burgess issued a challenge to hood against either man for a side bet, we harrels to the bird.

President Cowan was asked for the see of the clubhouse, to which he readily consented and, going up with the loys. Cowan found that thieves had rooken into the clubhouse and had carried off floor targets, together with everything else they could carry away. They had also broken the traps. Cowan says that the damage to the club will be lake to $150.

A small boy who was present said that he knew who had broken into the place and Cowan hopes to apprehend the thief and if he is caught Cowan says that he will use all his influence to place the culprit in the ponitentiary. Ever since the clubhouse has been built some one has made it a practice to break into the house three or four times a year and carry away everything loose, and the members are beginning to tire of the tinef.

It is the intention of the club to hold a meeting in the hear future to elect new officers and to secure new shooting grounds.

Boxing Titles.

The year 1909 passed by without any championships changing hands. Johnson, Ketchel, Nelson and Attell are still in possession of their crowns, but there are several men in sight who expect to make a strong bid for the litles the coming fighting season.

The first big ring battle zo far scheduled is that hetween James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson. Nelson may annex his signature at any time, but at the present time he is doing a little press work, which he believes is always necessary to boost his fights.
